DIY Glasflaschen zum Verschenken

Instructions No. 1845

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 20 Minutes

Giving away that special something is not difficult: with only little effort these three glass bottles are decorated. only Fill them afterwards.

Decorative metal flowers

The flowers are cut out of copper foil and embossed. For this purpose, simply draw Paper on a flower and cut it out. The embossing foil is embossed on the VBS Special mat. The contours of the outlined flower are transferred to the foil with a pencil, then the embossing foil can be cut to size with scissors. Using an embossing pencil, leaf structures can be modelled into the foil on the soft mat. Afterwards the flowers can be painted Handicraft paint with something.

Decorating the bottle

Now something double-sided Adhesive tape is positioned on each bottle, this is wrapped with a Paracord Ribbon , which Adhesive tape fixes the wrapping.

Position the metal flowers with hot glue on each bottle.

Inscription labels

The inscription labels are punched with the Craft Punch off Kraft paper . Carefully wipe over the edges of the die-cut labels with black stamping ink. The circles on the cork lids are also made of Kraft paper. these and the small black inscription field are also punched or cut out of something more self-adhesive Blackboard film . Both can be labeled or decorated according to your personal taste.

Finish

Tie the labels to a Paracord ribbon, stick the decorative tape with hot glue between the decorations and the cork of the bottle. Once the bottles are filled, the lid can be put on together with the label.
