Bath salt gift idea

Instructions No. 1523

Difficulty: Beginner

Nothing is as difficult and personal as giving. Self made Bath salts does not look only great but is also a particularly loving gift for the "wellness oasis".

Bath salts in small miniature bottles

First, the Bath salts is mixed with Soap colour and scent in a small container. The bottles are filled with it and then decorated

Loving labels are created by stamping photo cardboard or Coloured paper with a personal message, then punching out and punching a hole. A Jute ribbon is wrapped around the bottles, knotted, both threads are passed over the cork as a closure, pulled through the hole of the self-made labels and fixed with a pretty bow

Decorative Gift wrapping

Matching the Bath salts , a chip box is made with Napkin technique as Gift wrapping . The box is primed with Handicraft paint , the napkin motif is cut out of Napkin and then applied to the box with Napkin glue . A Jute ribbon fits very well as decoration and to close the box.

The choice of the personal message

The variety of beautiful stamps allows you to personalize paper labels.

Little effort - great effect

The small bottles can be designed in different colours. They are a great souvenir for everyone.
