Candles with three-dimensional decoration

Instructions No. 431

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 15 Minutes

You can make these candles really luxuriant without hesitation, because when they burn down, a wide edge of wax remains, through which the candlelight shines. If they are completely burned down you can put a tea light in it and have so still longer joy in it - a great craft idea!

Instructions

Cut the napkin motifs to size and remove the two unprinted layers of paper. Glue the printed napkin layer with Candles Potch on the candle and let it dry.

Zig-Zag-Ribbon, bobbin lace or narrow Satin ribbon according to taste with double-sided Adhesive tape on the candles.
Draw different areas of the napkin motive with Glitter Liner and thus emphasize.
Glue and cut out single napkin motives on Craft cardboard sheet . Decorate with Glitter Liner and glass half beads and glue the same motifs on the candle for the 3D look after drying with 3D-Glue pads .

Small bows, decoration-Jingles and other accessories round off this craft idea

This idea is timelessly beautiful!
