Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 3 Hours 30 Minutes

These summer tea light jars are colorfully designed with crackle mosaic. The small fragments of glass make the candle glow beautifully in the dark. Learn how to create your own lantern here.

Preparation

Before you start working with crackle mosaic tiles, protect your hands from cuts by wearing work gloves, as some of the small mosaic pieces have very sharp edges.

Before you open the crackle mosaic pack, bend it back and forth so that the material inside breaks into small pieces. It is best to fill these pieces into a small container.

Design with mosaic tiles

Now spread some mosaic glue on the tea glass surface, wait approx. 10 minutes for the glue to flash off and achieve the perfect adhesive properties. Pick up the individual mosaic pieces with tweezers and place them one by one, in small areas (so that nothing slips) on the glass for tea lights, until the entire surface is filled with the pieces.

As soon as the mosaic stones are firmly fixed to the glass, mix the mosaic joint filler with a little water according to the instructions on the pack to form a creamy mixture. Spread the mixture between the individual tiles with a soft brush and leave to dry.

Finally, wipe the surface with a slightly damp sponge to remove any excess joint filler. Allow everything to dry thoroughly, place a tea light in the glass and enjoy your new summer decoration.
