Instructions: stretched canvas for the wedding reception

Instructions No. 1227

The idea and instructions are perfect for those who are still looking for that special something for the wedding reception. The flying wedding car needs a lot of fingerprints of your guests to fly. At the wedding , the Stretched Canvas is a unique eye-catcher and later a particularly beautiful way to remember the wedding!

And it is as simple as that

Transfer the template of the beetles with the help of pencil and transfer paper to a Stretched Canvas or similar painting ground. Then trace the lines with a Fineliners or thin marker. If desired, the Stretched Canvas can be colored with Acrylic paint further
After drying, the flying wedding car is ready for the big wedding celebration: Your guests can now apply a little paint to their fingertips and leave a "balloon" print over the beetle. As an even more beautiful reminder, have each of you sign your name!

Our extra handicraft tip:
Pastel shades are achieved by mixing the base color with white paint.
