Painted bunnies with gloss varnish

Instructions No. 3577

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour 30 Minutes

Looking for a creative Easter decoration? You can set stylish accents with this self-painted bunny egg parade. With just a few materials and the right technique, you can make these colorful decorative elements yourself.

Colorful painting fun

Paint the wooden bunnies and eggs to suit your personal taste. Choose colors that complement your existing decor or bring fresh, spring-like tones into your home.

Start by creating the large areas of color for your painting idea.

Use a stippling brush to add details such as buttons or circular shapes. For even finer details such as buttonholes and seams, use a black fineliners. This pen has a particularly firm and fine felt tip and is therefore particularly suitable for drawing fine contours.

The special varnish effect

Once the colors are completely dry, highlight certain areas with Fluid Gloss. This is a water-based coating varnish that spreads evenly over the surface after application, smoothing out any unevenness. The varnish dries to a glossy finish - ideal for giving some areas of the decoration a special varnish effect. Leave everything to dry well.

Attach bows and flowers Finally, decorate the wooden decorations with bows and flowers VBS handicraft glue. Once the glue has dried, your masterpiece is complete!
