Quilling mural with flowers

Instructions No. 2559

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 12 Hours

This Quilling picture is a fascinating art object on your wall that you can make yourself from paper strips. Learn how it works here.

Prepare the stretcher frame

To set the scene for the Quilling flowers in the best possible way, create a delicate background for the picture using acrylic paints and painting sponge in shades of blue: first mix a light shade of blue from cobalt blue, turquoise and titanium white and apply it roughly using the sponge with the wipe look. The wipe optics should be carried out quiet "nice and wild", this provides a more exciting color result on the stretcher.

With the same sponge, the color is now dabbed onto the center of the stretcher. Add some mixed white to the edges of the paint area directly from the tube onto the stretcher and work the paint into a gradient with the sponge.

Making paper flowers with the quilling technique

Make squiggles and loops from the various quilling strips. With the VBS Quilling stencil, a Quilling pen you will certainly succeed these shapes well. Fix each part with craft glue. Sobad you have a sufficient number of individual quilling shapes arrange them on the stretcher to different flowers and glue them on.

Green quilling strips glued on edge make the flower stems.

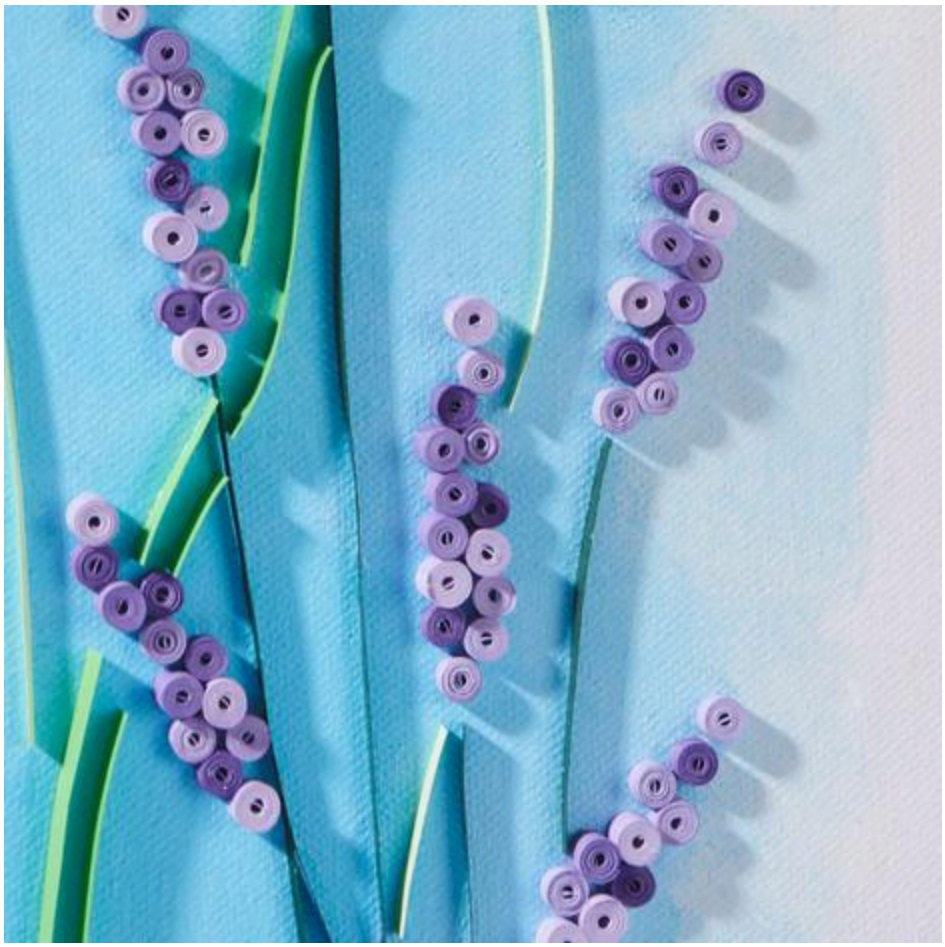

Extra tip: Use pins to hold the individual pieces in shape until the glue takes effect.
