

Hello neighbour,

are you as excited as I am?
It's New Year's Eve at last! If only it didn't take so long until it's finally midnight.

To shorten the waiting time, I've packed a few surprise bags for you.

But beware!

You may only open them at the appropriate time.

I wish you a wonderful celebration and a happy new year.

See you soon

Your

PS: So that I can stay awake until midnight, I'm going to lie down in my bed again and take a long nap...
