Secret Santa Door Tomte celebrates New Year's Eve

Instructions No. 2886

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 30 Minutes

With this craft idea, Tomte dives into the festive world of New Year's Eve. With a few miniatures, a little creativity and crafting joy, you can create a unique New Year's Eve picture in no time at all.

Paint the door, the fireplace and the kitchen shelf white to create a neutral background for the decoration.

Let your creativity run wild and decorate the surfaces with chenille wire, stickers and miniatures, as shown in the pictures. There are no limits, so you can design everything individually and personally.

transfer the templates for the party hats, New Year's Eve rockets and clocks to the Paper. Make sure that you transfer the details carefully so that the decoration looks accurate and precise.

Carefully cut out the templates from Paper . Precise cutting is important to achieve the desired shape and aesthetics.

Party hat:

1. Roll the cut-out Paper into a cone and glue the edge together to create the hat shape.

2. Cut a piece of silver chenille wire and insert it into the small opening at the top of the hat.

3. Bend the wire once to secure it and your party hat is ready.

New Year's Eve rocket:

1. Cut the bamboo sticks to the desired length.

2. Glue the beginning of the paper strips onto the bamboo sticks and roll them up.

3. Glue the ends together to form a rocket.

4. Cut the small circle to the middle, roll it up into a cone and glue it in place.

5. Glue the rocket onto the rolled up paper strips.

The clock:

1. Cut out the circles and the hands.

2. Stick the hands and the number stickers onto the circles.

3. Attach three of the clocks to the packaging and decorate them with a bow as desired.
