Tea cupboard with stamped motifs

Instructions No. 311

An unusual gift for passionate tea drinkers - or to keep for yourself: The round wooden cupboard will be stamped with playful ornaments and the matching lettering after the design in enamel-look. It looks particularly pretty when the tea is then packed in chiffon bags.

It's that simple:
Prime the cabinet white and let it dry. With a Paint sponge brown Acrylic paint wipe over the outer surface and work out the handles particularly. Stamp the ornaments after drying. Tip: On the round surfaces you can also use the flexible silicone stamps without the Acrylic-block. Stamp the fronts of the individual compartments with the desired text. Mark all edges with blue Handicraft paint , then wipe brown Acrylic-colour over them. Mix navy blue and white Handicraft paint with Light blue and place individual dots on the edges for an enamel look.
Finally with brown Acrylic paint still sharp web code: add dub123sX edges.
